餐厅以红、黑色调为主，白色的立柱耸立其间，彼此相形相配，视觉上极具层次感。巨型的餐厅里，南北临窗的区域为10个包厢，公共区域居中，并设有亮丽的吧台，既活跃了气氛，又拉近了与客人之间的关系。

候客区保留了建筑本身的特点。经过维护的雕花立柱和黑漆窗框可见外滩18号昔日的辉煌。连窗户上的黄铜把手和开关都保留原貌，成为一种怀旧的标志。这里的地面采用了大量的青石砖，配以意大利进口的红色琉璃，营造出一种身处户外的自然效果。在用餐区域里，餐厅把私密性和整体效果

很好地结合在一起。包间之间的隔墙上安装了移门，可以根据客人的需要而调整开合大小。这些从浙江东阳定做的手工雕花屏风，有着浓厚的中式风格，和红色的整体基调十分吻合。餐厅中间的吧台色彩十分绚丽，红色的玻璃镶嵌在木格中，组成一道背景墙。大理石台面里设有电子灯管，加强了视觉效果。顶部的大块玻璃把这个精彩的场景完完全全地映衬下来，成为一种有趣的影像对比。

A picturesque interior of crimson and black framed by white pillars, the Tan Wai Lou is a visually delighted restaurant with gargantuan dining hall and dazzling bar, as well as the compartments along both sides of the windows, all set in the ambience of ardor and pomposity.

Reserved in its original flavor, the designers have the architecture characters intact at the restaurant's reception area, and have the engraved pillars, black windowsills and bronze handles kept as they were century ago for the nostalgic sentiment. Naturally set in bluestone and Italian red colored glaze, the grandiose hall is designed in a fashionable continuity with great privacy in each dining space, and compartments are separated by matching sliding doors and regionally handcrafted wooden screens for flexible alteration. In the center, a profusely colorful bar with illuminated counter sits in front of a back wall of crimson glasses and wooden frame, and projects a fabulous stage scene into the colossal ceiling glass.
